In compliance with recent tax regulations, we are required to inform members of the portion of annual dues which is not deductible for income tax purposes. This portion is being disallowed because of the lobbying expenses and political activities which the Builders Association of Minnesota and the National Association of Home Builders support on members' behalf. The nondeductible portion of your 2010 dues is $39.00. The remaining portion of your dues may be fully deductible as a business expense; consult your professional tax advisor.

CODE OF ETHICS AGREEMENT

As a member of the Builders Association of the Twin Cities, I support the goals and objectives of the Association. I agree to adhere to the Code of Ethics as set forth by the Association. As a builder, developer, sub-contractor, or supplier, I have reviewed the Minimum Performance Standards established by the Association and agree to abide by these standards as a guide to construction practices accepted by the local homebuilding industry. As a material supplier only (ie., utilities, lumber, brick, etc.) or a service supplier (ie., lending, insurance, real estate companies, etc.), I may submit for review to the Builders Association of the Twin Cities, our company's written minimum performance standards/warranty specifications in lieu of the Builders Association of the Twin Cities.

As a builder, developer, subcontractor or supplier, I agree to investigate a complaint related to my company from a consumer or another member in a fair and professional manner. If my direct intervention fails to resolve the problem, I agree to participate in the non-binding mediation service endorsed by the Association. I understand that acceptance by the Builders Association of the Twin Cities of our company's minimum performance standards/warranty specifications (as a material or service supplier only) is a requirement for membership. I agree to hold the Association harmless in the event that the Association is asked to assist in the resolution of a dispute.

NAHB MEMBER IDENTIFICATION (ID) CODING INSTRUCTIONS

The NAHB Member Identification (ID) Code is made up of eleven date blocks which are explained below. It is separate from the six-digit NAHB Membership Number assigned to each member. The ID Code is designed for use by NAHB and its affiliated state and local associations to provide services which respond to the changing needs of our membership. Please note as in the examples below. If the requested data for a particular block is not applicable, enter a dash (-). Also if you don't know the exact answer for a particular block, please give your best estimate. In order for an associate member to receive the Builder Magazine they must be classified with an occupation code ranging from (A-Z). A "Z" or "other" classification code must also be further defined by writing the members specific occupation in the space provided. Any associate member not classified as outlined will not receive a copy of the Builder Magazine.
